

Early Summer Edition Newsletter 2026

Hello, all! Since the last edition, we hosted our very first ever Mock Show and it was a success! Thank you to all the new members and volunteers who came to show and help out, and the spectators who stopped in to check it out! In addition to the dressage tests, we also had an information table hosted by Sierra Bahm of Lone Wolf Farrier Service, who uses both synthetic and preserved biological structures to demonstrate hoof and lower leg functionality and pathology. A few pictures of the Mock Show are included at the bottom of this newsletter.

Stay Tuned!!!! for a flash sale on our clothing store - we will be opening it very soon (you will get another email announcing it) and we will close the store in time for everyone to receive their items before the show in August! If you want to check out what will be available to order once we open the store, please follow this link.

We also started a WhatsApp chat group to help keep those members in central and western Nebraska up to date about practices and other local events in real time. If you would like to be in this group, please download WhatsApp and reach out to Hope at (308) 529-0177 or Alisa at (308) 640-0618.

Please mark August 7 & 8 in your calendar for our yearly schooling show, the Round Up! We will also have a clinic taught by the judge on August 9. More information to come.

Last but not least, we have added a Partnership On The Ground clinic for June 28! Registration is live - please sign up ASAP!

Updates from Cowboy Dressage World

There have been some changes from Cowboy Dressage World relating to membership and awards. Please note the following:

- To show in sanctioned or schooling shows, participants have the option of being a Remuda member ($65) or simply paying a $25 fee per show. Keep in mind that the Remuda membership gives you the ability to show in the Virtual Shows as well. Click here to join the Remuda!
 - Once you join the Remuda, you will need to know how to retrieve your number
- The World organization will also be giving High Point Awards in the following categories: Mare, Gelding, Stallion, and Breed. Each Breed award must be sponsored ($250 each) so keep your eyes on the World website to see which breed associations and enthusiast groups sponsor their breeds!
