

Late Spring Edition Newsletter 2026

Hello, all! April has been a full month! Our clinic with Tracie Seavey Audette filled with riders; plus, we had several auditors. Our practices at the Dawson County Fairgrounds have had good attendance and engagement (pictures are below!). We are so excited to see all the new faces this year! Pictures from the clinic and practices are all the way at the bottom....

We have also added a Mock Show at the Dawson County Fairgrounds on May 30! The purpose of this event is to help you and your horse get accustomed to the show environment, from the stalls to the PA system and beyond. Lisa Eggerling will be the judge for this mock show and will provide feedback consistent with what you'd get at a show. We will also be looking for volunteers to learn how to scribe, call, and score in this learning environment, as these are vital components of our "real" show and we are always in need of those who are passably comfortable with them!

We will offer an abridged list of tests to keep things simple. The registration form is linked in the next section.

We will also have lessons available the following day (May 31) at the same venue, taught by Lisa Eggerling as well, at a special rate of $35/ 50-minute lesson! Indicate your interest in the Mock Show signup form!

Fundraisers & Sponsorships

Each year, one of our fundraising efforts centers around court letter sponsorships. We have already gotten a few sponsorships. Here are the letters still available: J, N, K, V, S, H, Q, C, Y, M, B, P, and 4 "blank" cones. If you would like to sponsor one of the remaining letters, please follow the instructions here.

We rely on donations from our sponsors! If you know of someone who would like to donate, please approach them and ask. We have added four sponsorship levels. If you or someone you know would like to sponsor our club, please see the below options!

Updates from Cowboy Dressage World

There have been some changes from Cowboy Dressage World relating to membership and awards. Please note the following:

- To show in sanctioned or schooling shows, participants have the option of being a Remuda member ($65) or simply paying a $25 fee per show. Keep in mind that the Remuda membership gives you the ability to show in the Virtual Shows as well. Click here to join the Remuda!
 - Once you join the Remuda, you will need to know how to retrieve your number
- The World organization will also be giving High Point Awards in the following categories: Mare, Gelding, Stallion, and Breed. Each Breed award must be sponsored ($250 each) so keep your eyes on the World website to see which breed associations and enthusiast groups sponsor their breeds!

Cowboy Dressage World Resources

There is a ton of information about Cowboy Dressage available! From a calendar of sanctioned shows and clinics to the rules and guidelines for shows and the tests you can ride, it can all be found on the Cowboy Dressage World website.
